With Infertility

Shannon Phillips is a wife, mom, sister, friend, teacher, and most importantly, a daughter of God. She holds a Master's Degree in Theology and has taught at St. Thomas More for 14 years. She shares her story of how God uses her crosses to bring her closer to Him and allow her to share His Love with others. Through the sorrows and joys of life, she has come to believe that suffering brings us to deeper faith and a greater awareness of how precious life is. She has a great love for Mary at the foot of the Cross and invites you to meet her there so we can journey to Christ together.
